

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Bulgaria

Item: Rose oil

School:
Nationales Finanz-Wirtschaftsgymnasium, Sofia

- You need 2000 rose blossoms for the production of one gramm of rose oil. That is why rose oil is more precious than gold.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Estonia

Item: Edgar Valter
„Pinstelsabad“

School: Pärnu Sütevaka
Humanitaargümnaasium, Pärnu

- On one hand it is just a book, on other hand it is a very special Estonian book.

Country: Greece

Item: branch of an olive tree

School: GRASEP Gymnasium
Efxinoupolis, Almyrou

- This branch is the greek symbol of peace and friendship and the greeks' winners prize in olympic games, competitions etc.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: France

Item: oyster knife

School: Lyce  Saint Andre, Niort

- If you don't have this object, your Christmas dinner won't be perfect! Can you guess why?

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Hungary

Item:

String of peppers, Albert Szentgyörgyi

School: Thuri György gimnázium
és szakközépiskola, Várpalota

- Albert Szentgyörgyi – while working at the University of Szeged – isolated Vitamin C from peppers, which contain much more Vitamin C than lemons. He got a Nobel Prize in Medical Science and Physiology in 1937.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Hungary

Item: The rubik dice

School: Bajza József Gimnázium, Hatvan

- Why we have chosen this object? Because it shows how clever and funny we Hungarians are!

For an Innovative
Management Diversity
of Cultural

Country:

Luxembourg

Item: Euro coin

School: Neie Lyceé
Luxembourg,
Luxembourg

- The euro-coin is related to some of the main elements of Luxembourg's cultural identity: Grand Duchy and not kingdom; mining and steel industry; EU initiator and advocate and European power centre; international banking centre; melting pot of European cultures and languages; the identity of the Letzeburgisch language and other...

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Latvia

Symbol:
Latvian Nationwide Song and Dance Celebration

School: Alfreda Kalnina Cesu
Music Secondary School,
Cesis

- For centuries singing and songs have played an important role in the life of the Latvian people. Even the days of restoration of our independence in 1990 are known as "the revolution song".

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Romania

Item: "Ulcior" pottery made of terracotta, porcelain doll dressed in traditional costume

School: Școala Nr. 35 "ION D. SÎRBU", Craiova

The name of pottery is "Ulcior". In the rural area in very hot days, beautiful young girls use it to deliver water to thirsty working farmers. About this costume we have a lot of songs and poems.

For an Innovative
Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Slovakia

Symbol: Zuzana

Maurery (actress)

School: Gymnázium sv. Vincenta de Paul, Bratislava

- She has acted in different dramas and also in films made abroad. She speaks both German and English. In our opinion she symbolizes young Slovakia in the European Union. - "She is a young European"

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Slovakia

Item: Korbáč

School: Stredná Priemyselná
Skola Hutnícka, Košice

- The Korbáč is a special handmade whip used on women during Easter-celebrations. (In return girls pour buckets of water over the boys' heads).

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Slovenia

Item: Nut roll

School: Srednja ekonomska sola Celje

II. Gymnazija Maribor

- Hmmm... We cannot imagine any Christmas or Eastern-meal without it.

For an Innovative
Management Diversity
of Cultural

Country: Turkey

Item: Turkish Coffee

School: Ismet Pasa Primary and Secondary School
Elazig

- Turkish coffee symbolizes FRIENDSHIP and HOSPITALITY. There is a Turkish proverb for Turkish Coffee : A cup of coffee commits one to forty years of friendship.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Austria

Item: „Im Land der Kastanien“

School: Bundes-Bildungsanstalt für Kindergartenpädagogik, Oberwart

- This picture-book is written in all four languages, that are spoken in the Burgenland (Croatian, Hungarian, Slovenian, German).

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Poland

Item: stork

School: Zespół Szkół
Ogólnokształcących, Skoczów

- The stork symbolises our Polish landscape and the character of our country.

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Lithuania

Item: doll in Lithuanian costume

School: Kaunas University of Technology Gymnasium, Kaunas

- We have chosen this doll as it symbolizes things, which are the most important to Lithuanian people.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Romania

Item: CALUSARII
(the cavalier)

School: Colegiul National I.L. Caragiale, Bucarest

- The Calusarii are a group of 7-11 dancers accompanied by a leading dancer, a musician, a standard bearer and a mute. This dance symbolizes health, dynamics and creativity.

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Countries. Inside there are colors: yellow – the Sun, green – the fields, red – our blood. All this colors together – symbolize our country Lithuania. Rays of hope express the movement – we are going to meet with other teams from other countries of Europe in Vienna.

Country: Lithuania

Items: colour circle, two angels

Two angels watch are going with us, - one keeps snow for the land decoration and the other one brings a key to the kind hearts in the meeting with people.

School: Seskines secondary school, Vilnius

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Malta

Item: The Sleeping Lady

School: Post Secondary School, Victoria,
Gozo

- The object is a replica of the 'sleeping lady' found in an underground cemetery (hypogeum) at Hal Saflieni, which dates to 3,300 b.C. We chose this object because it represents Malta's unique European Heritage in the Mediterranean.

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Italy

Item: tambourine
"bombolo" (anfora)
"maranzana" (Jew's harp)

School: Magistrale Statale "G. Turrisi Colonna", Catania

- the language of music is not only audible but visible, it is body language too
- Sicilian instruments are portable because Sicilian music travels everywhere

For an Innovative
Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Denmark

Item: Porcelain bird

made at the Royal Copenhagen Porcelain Factory

School: Ørestad Gymnasium.
Copenhagen

- The bird is small as Denmark, and does symbolise quality. It is a symbol of freedom - freedom of speech for example, which is a top issue, along with the democracy discussion, in Denmark at the moment.

For an Innovative
Management
of Cultural Diversity

Country: Portugal

Item: Astrolabium

School: Escola Secundária 2,3 D.
Filipa de Lencastre,
Lisbon

- We want to be as innovative now as we once were when our ships travelled beyond the Atlantic Ocean to meet different worlds!

For an Innovative
Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Croatia

Item: Tie

School: Privatna srednja
ekonomska skola
Katarina Zrinski, Zagreb

Your Tie – Croatian Tie!

For an Innovative Management of Cultural Diversity

Country: Czech Republic
Item: Becherovka

School: Austrian Gymnasium,
Prague